President Guild was in the chair, and the records of the last annual and monthly meetings were read by the Clerk, and approved. The President then read his Annual Address: President Curtis Guilds Address. Recollections Of A Boston Schoolboy. Boston sixty years ago; the boys of Boston of that period, - yes, I recollect them well, for I was one of them. Then Boston Common was our play-ground. On Wednesday and Saturday afternoons, which were school holidays, we met there with our hockeys, and two of the larger boys chose sides; then with our leaders and from ten to fifteen companions, each party formed on either side of a walk equidistant from the path leading from the Frog Pond to West Street on the south and...
