Excerpt from Universities and Their Sons, Vol. 5: History, Influence and Characteristics of American Universities With Biographical Sketches and Portraits of Alumni and Recipients of Honorary Degrees Elgin Adelbert Angell, Lawyer, was born in the Angell Settlement, so-called, near Forestville in Chautauqua county, New York, August 14, 1849, the son of Cyrus D. and Lucina (Shepard) Angell. He traced his descent directly from Roger Williams of Rhode Island, through his daughter, and from Thomas Angell, one of the Crown Commissioners for the settlement of Rhode Island. His preparatory school work was done in the common schools of Forestville and at Adelbert Academy in Belleville, Ontario, and he entered Harvard in 1869, graduating with high honors in the Class of 1873. He then began a business career in the oil fields of Western Pennsylvania with his father who had been a large and influential operator there for many years, but soon tiring of this entered Harvard Law School in November 1873, and supporting himself by tutoring, principally in mathematics, graduated with the usual degree of Bachelor of Laws...
