Then out of the blue came a bolt of lightning that struck and blew his church, children, and ministry all to pieces. Entangled Biography of a Divorced Minister is author Jim Howard's story of how a trusted brother in God stole his very life away. Betrayed by his godly wife, Jim experienced a divorce and abandonment by those who were supposed to stick by him. Since Jim pastored in a denomination that frowned upon divorced ministers, he felt he had no choice but to leave the ministry. Leaving the ministry was one of his biggest sins. Being a minister, you would think life would be perfect: a good job, a loving and godly wife, beautiful children, and a ministry who loved, respected, and supported you. But this minister was dealt a surprising blow. In this book, author James Howard relates and expresses his feelings, struggles, and realizations of being a divorced minister.
