His critics on the other hand assign to his works the brilliancy of reportage. The nonfiction novel exists in order not to change the American situation that makes possible so much literary aggression against it. Norman Mailer s Miami and The Siege of Chicago is an account of the 1968 Conventions in Miami (Republicans) and Chicago (Democrats). This 'classic work of interpretive political reportage'<sup>4,5</sup> consists of two parts, the first 'Nixon in Miami' and the second 'The Siege of Chicago'. Mailer uses a device he developed to high craft: third-person story telling based on first-person participation. His style and rhetorical devices stand out among other novelists. When Mailer describes the Republican convention in Miami using metaphorical language filled with disgust he risks to offend the audience: 'And the country roaring like the bull in...
