But, blessed be its eternal Author, every page is full of encouragement. Its statutes secure to man his right to liberty, its divine songs breathe consolation for the oppressed, and teach him to sing of the vengeance treasured up for the oppressor. The question is, then, very naturally suggested, Why is it that there are on the earth so many millions of oppressed, notwithstanding more than eighteen centuries have elapsed since heavenly messengers proclaimed at the advent of the Saviour, On earth peace, and good-will to men? Is it the practical application of that religion which he taught? Nay, it is the violation of its principles, the transgression of its precepts, the utter disregard and trampling under foot its laws, that has made one part of our race abject slaves, and the other tyrants and despots to harass and spoil them. I shall, therefore, devote the time allowed me on this occasion to an examination of the laws and principles of the Old and New Testament, so far as they relate to this subject. The propriety and the necessity of such an examination, is obvious.1. The Bible is the source to which the ablest advocates of slavery always appeal. Ministers of the gospel, with shame the confession is made, are the most unblushing defenders of the system, and their appeal is always to the Scriptures. It is proper, then, to...
