Before Christ ventured out to achieve his God given mission in life, He had to make very hard choices. These choices were distractions that the devil exposed him to, with the only purpose of derailing him from His course. As we are all aware, the devil tempted Christ three times. The first was about his physical sustenance, which he quickly rebuffed with the word of God. He them moved to the pinnacle of the Church, which represents religion and our relationship with God. Christ again rebuffed it with the word of God, whiles the devil was also trying to trick Him with the same word. The third temptation was about worldly powers and desires. Again, Christ saw them as distractions, and stayed away from all of them. All the time, God s plan for our lives is to become the best He has endowed us to be but it takes discipline, not just desires, to get us there. Culture has so many elements which places a lot of demands and expectations on us. Some of these demands fit into our God given roles in life, and some are just pure distractions....
