These are specimens of a sort of rondeau which I think I shall become partial to--because you have one idea amplified with greater ease and more delight and freedom than in the sonnet. It is my intention to wait a few years before I publish any minor poems--and then I hope to have a volume of some worth--and which those people will relish who cannot bear the burthen of a long poem. In my journal I intend to copy the poems I write the days they are written--there is just room I see in this page to copy a little thing I wrote off to some Music as it was playing--I had a dove and the sweet dove died, And I have thought it died of grieving: O what could it grieve for it was tied With a silken thread...
