Excerpt: . . . 11 and included several nutrients not included in earlier editions of the Guidelines. After much consideration, and several meetings with SNA, last November USDA announced that it would have to consult with the Institute of Medicine before it could update the meal pattern. Consulting with IOM will take two years. Attached is the USDA memo to our state directors. We commend USDA for this decision and for acknowledging what we all know to be true: nutrition science is complicated. If USDA must consult with the IOM before proposing a new school meal pattern, then our counsel is twofold: 1. Please dont lock the nutrition standard into statute; and 2. Please dont allow each state and district to establish their own interpretation of the Dietary Guidelines. The recall Mr. Chairman, a not so funny thing has happened on the way to this hearing: USDA has had one the largest recalls in history, if not the very largest. As we un-derstand it, approximately 143 million pounds of beef was recalled, of which millions of pounds went to nutrition programs. Schools, like all consumers, rely on the Department of Agriculture and the Food and Drug Administration to protect the safety of our food supply. USDA has had an excellent food safety record and we appreciate their vigilance. The schools sup-port the USDA commodity distribution program. Approximately 20 of the food served in school comes from USDA; the remaining 80 is purchased...
